God's Generous Care For the Returnees

Mike King

We sometimes doubt the ability of God to care for His people with there being so many. Too, the conditions under which they were traveling would have added to the complexity of God's custodial care for them.

Moses and the Israelites were in the desert and great needs had to be met daily to care for the potential 2 to 3 million people. How do you feed that many people off of a land that was dry and desolate? A Quarter-master General in the Army has done some rough estimates of what would have been required.

The travelers from Egypt to Palestine would have required 1,500 tons of food each day. To bring that much food daily to the table would have necessitated two freight trains, each a mile long, just for one day.

Considering that they were in the desert, firewood would have been required to use for cooking this abundance of food. This would have required 4,000 tons of wood and a few more freight trains, each also a mile long, just for one day's providing. This had to be repeated each day for forty years!

What about water? That certainly would have been a necessity with it being a desert. If they used it just for drinking and washing a few dishes, it would have taken 11,000,000 gallons of water each day and a freight train of tank cars 1,800 miles long, just for their water.

Crossing the Red Sea at night was no mean task. It is conjectured that if they crossed on a narrow path, double file, the line would be 800 miles long and would require 35 days and nights to get through. There had to be a space in the Red Sea, three miles wide so they could walk 5,000 abreast to manage crossing in one night.

Surely this was enough of a challenge for God without having to consider where they would bed down each night. Their place of encampment at the end of the day would have required acreage two-thirds the size of Rhode Island. This would have been the equivalent of 750 square miles long.

Is there anyway that Moses could have figured this out before leaving Egypt? Impossible! The numbers were always changing with births and deaths daily. Simply calculate the necessary acreage for burial of their dead for one day. Almost 15, 000 died in Numbers 16 alone!

Now, if God could meet these challenges, do you not believe that "...he is able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think?" (Eph. 3:20).

"I BELIEVE"

...That a friendly look, a kindly smile, one good act, and life's worthwhile.

EXAMINE YOURSELVES

2 Corinthians 13:5 “Examine yourselves, whether ye be in the faith; prove your own selves....”

These instructions given by Paul to not only the Corinthians but to all of us as well are most valuable and essential to our spiritual well being. Self examination of our faith is an important precaution to take in order to insure that we are truly what we claim to be, a child of God in whom Christ lives (Gal. 2:20)

Our faith is not put to the test by sitting down in a comfortable easy chair someplace and thinking about it for a few minutes. It is tested and shown by the effect it has had and is having on our daily life.

It is not a matter of what our faith is on Sunday morning as we gather together and find ourselves surrounded by Christians of like faith. What is our faith like the rest of the week when we are out in the midst of an exceedingly wicked world, out where sin and error abound mightily? Is it then that our faith shines like a great beacon of light—Matt. 5:14? In that environment does our light shine in a way that a wicked world sees our good works and is led to glorify God—Matt. 5:16? It really comes down to this: In our everyday life, going about all of our daily activities, is our life an example of the believer in word, life, love, spirit, faith and purity (I Tim. 4:12)?

Is our faith proven to be true in that others see it by what we say and what we do, not just on Sunday but the other six days of the week also (James 2:18; James 3: 10-12; Eph. 4:29-32)?

How does our faith react when adverse conditions such as sickness, hard times, failures, disappointments, burdens of all kind afflict us? Is our faith such then that we just fold up, quit, say it's too hard, can't go on? Do we blame others or perhaps even blame God? Or is our faith under those not so pleasant conditions of life such that it grows stronger as with God's help we overcome them?

Is our faith such that we can endure the disappointments, set backs and distresses of this life without complaining and murmuring (Phil. 2:14; I Cor.10:10; Jude 16)? Or is our faith such that we are led to a conscientious and honest endeavor to rejoice and thank God for his tender, loving care and mercy (Phil. 4:4. 6-7; Heb. 13:5; I Pet.5:7; Heb. 5:16).

Examine your faith. O for a faith that will not shrink though oppress by foes on every hand. David once said, “Examine me, O Lord, and prove me; try my reins and my heart” (Ps. 26:2). I wonder, how many of us would at this very moment dare pray the same prayer? ~ Bible Thought, Charles Hicks 09/12/11
