Just One Number Off

We understand the need to be exact when it comes to our daily life. Have you ever used a credit card to buy something on line? What happens if you are just one number off? You try to make a call and you miss just one number. What happened? You misread the price on the product you plan to buy. When you check out, what happens?

Yet when it comes to our salvation and pleasing God, we seem to throw common sense out the window. Incomplete obedience like an incomplete number is useless. The call simply will not go through. Faith, confession, repentance and ... It's the "and" that leaves so many out of a relationship with Jesus. The "and" of living the kind of life we should live, and the obedience we should give. Salvation not complete will not save us. A life of almost living a right life leaves us out of favor with God.

Have you ever gotten that little voice that states, "we are sorry but the number you have dialed is not a working number? When it comes to salvation be sure that you have dialed the correct number, your soul depends on it being right.

Church Attendance -- Is it Necessary?

The Early Church Assembled

The practice of the early church meeting on the first day of the week was recorded in Acts 20:7. This set before Christians of all ages the inspired example that is imitated by the faithful today. "And on the first day of the week, when we were gathered together to break bread, Paul began talking to them, intending to depart the next day, and he prolonged his message until midnight,"

The church of Christ at Corinth met on the first day of the week. They were to use this regular day of meeting to contribute" "On the first day of every week let each one of you put aside and serve, as he may prosper that no collections be made when I come." (I Cor. 16:2).

Christians who desire to please the Lord must still assemble on Sunday to worship Him. It was on this special day that Jesus arose victoriously from the grave. It was on Sunday that Jesus appeared to His disciples before ascending into heaven. It was on Sunday that the church of Christ was established. It was on Sunday that the Holy Spirit was given to the apostles to guide them into all truth, It was on Sunday that the disciples of the first century observed the Lord's Supper.

Friendship

Friendship is a precious bond,
So fragile, yet so strong.
It's nurtured by our deeds and thoughts,
And soothes when things go wrong.

Friendship is companionship:
The joy of sharing fun,
Of canasta games,
Golf and notes we send,
That keep us on the run!

Friendship, also shares the times
When sorrow comes our way.
To have dear friends who really care,
Makes "gray days" much less gray!

Friendship never can be owned,
Or chained, or bought, or sold.
It's a special freely-given gift
To treasure, and to hold.

Friendship is a lovely gift:
A special gift from God
To bring us happy memories
As life's long path we tread.

A Valentine Story

A man asked his wife what she'd like for Valentine's Day.

"I'd love to be six again," was her reply.

On the morning of Valentine's Day, he arose early, made her a nice big bowl of Lucky Charms, and then took her to Six Flags theme park.

What a day! He put her on every ride in the park: the Death Slide, the Wall of Fear, the Screaming Monster Roller Coaster, everything there was.

Five hours later they staggered out of the theme park. Her head was reeling and her stomach felt upside down.

He then took her to a McDonald's where he ordered her a Happy Meal with extra fries and a chocolate shake.

Then it was off to a movie, popcorn, a soda pop, and her favorite candy, M & M's.

What a fabulous adventure! Finally, she wobbled home with her husband and collapsed into bed exhausted.

He leaned over his wife with a big smile and lovingly asked, "Well, Honey, what was it like being six again?"

Her eyes slowly opened and her expression suddenly changed. "I meant my dress size!"

The moral of the story: Even when a man is listening it does not guarantee that he will hear!
