NEW ALBANY CHURCH OF CHRIST

2014 FALL LECTURESHIP

Wednesday - September 10th

Speaker:

JASON MOON

Roebuck Parkway Church of Christ,
Birmingham, AL

Jason Moon was born and raised in Jasper, AL. He grew up attending the Blackwater Macedonia congregation where his parents are still members and his dad serves as one of the elders.

Jason and his wife, Candi, met at Maywood Christian Camp in 1990 and were married in 1992. They have been married for 22 years and have two children: Nic, age 19, and Lindlee, age 16.

Jason has been the pulpit minister at the Roebuck Parkway Church of Christ in Birmingham, AL since October 1, 2011. Before moving to Birmingham, he preached at the Chase Park church in Huntsville, AL for 8 ½ years. Jason has also preached at the Church Street congregation in Lewisburg, TN, the Shiloh congregation near Florence, AL, and the Eastside congregation in Cleveland, TN.

In 1992, Jason earned his BA in Biblical Studies from Faulkner University and in 1998 he received his Master of Ministry degree from Freed Hardeman University.

Jason has been preaching the Gospel for 24 years. I have known Jason for most of those preaching years. He is a talented young man and has great rapport with people, especially young people. He is sound in doctrine and sincere in spirit. He is a product of Christian education and a supporter of the same. Jason will hold your attention and I am personally looking forward to having him with us for this year's Fall Lectureship.

FAMILY

I ran into a stranger as he passed by, “Oh excuse me please” was my reply. He said, “please excuse me too; I wasn’t watching for you.” We were very polite, this stranger and I. We went on our way and we said goodbye.

But at home a different story is told, how we treat our loved ones, young and old. Later that day, cooking the evening meal, my son stood beside me very still. When I turned, I nearly knocked him down. “Move out of the way,” I said with a frown. He walked away, his little heart broken. I didn’t realize how harshly I’d spoken.

While I lay awake in bed, a still small voice came to me and said, “While dealing with a stranger, common courtesy you use, but the family you love, you seem to abuse. Go and look on the kitchen floor, you’ll find some flowers there by the door. Those are the flowers he brought for you. He picked them himself: pink, yellow, and blue. He stood very quietly not to spoil the surprise, you never saw the tears that filled his little eyes.”

By this time, I felt very small, and now my tears began to fall. I quietly went and knelt by his bed; “wake up, little one, wake up,” I said. “Are these the flowers you picked for me?” He smiled, “I found ‘em, out by the tree. I picked ‘em because they’re pretty like you. I knew you’d like ‘em, especially the blue.” I said, “son, I’m very sorry for the way I acted today; I shouldn’t have yelled at you that way.” He said, “Oh, Mom, that’s okay. I love you anyway.” I said, “Son, I love you too, and I do like the flowers, especially the blue.”

GROWING A CHRISTIAN

- Don't neglect your prayer time. It is the breath of the soul (Lk. 18:1).
- Don't neglect your Bible. It is your sword for conquest, your hammer for construction, your guiding light for dreary days (Rev. 1:3).
- Don't neglect your body. It is the capital on which you are to do business for the rest of your life (1 Car. 6:19, 20).
- Don't neglect your mind. It is your channel for reaching up to the very thoughts of God (c£ Phil. 4:8).
- Don't neglect your laugh. The Bible teaches that "A merry heart cloth good like a medicine" (Prov. 17:22).
- Don't neglect your reputation. It is the gold with which you will meet the demands of a complex civilization (Mt. 5:14-16).
- Don't neglect your influence. It will point other people to the living God whom you serve (Prov. 11:6).
