Harold Cornelius Russell October 1, 1931 – October 9, 2022

There are some folks that God brings into this world that are so special that they stand out beyond most others. The interesting truth is though that these folks tend to be the most loving, humble, and godly people to walk among us. The unfortunate truth is that they often go unrecognized by the world at large even though their light shines so brightly in the darkness. Harold Russell was one of these precious souls.

While Harold will not be remembered in any record or history books marking the “greatest” of history, he undoubtedly will be recorded and remembered where it really matters, in “the Lamb’s Book of Life” (Revelation 20:12; 21:17). His obedience to, and faithful life in, the gospel of Jesus Christ ensured his name would be there. His paternal legacy is a testimony to his righteous life. His years of service as a deacon, Bible Class Teacher, and steward is a worthy example for all of us to follow.

His personal life was one that was encompassed by the fact that he had truly submitted everything to the Lord (Matthew 16:24; Romans 12:1–2). He was honest, loving, hardworking, and giving. Paul told Timothy, “be an example to the believers in word, in conduct, in love, in spirit, in faith, in purity” (1 Timothy 4:12). Mr. Harold certainly followed this admonition in his life, and it would be prudent for you and me to follow in his footsteps as he followed Christ in all things (1 Corinthians 11:1).

Mr. Harold will surely be missed by all who knew and loved him. But we take great comfort in knowing the kind of Christian man he was. We are comforted to know that he no longer knows pain, suffering, or sorrow and that he rests from his labors (Revelation 14:13; Psalm 116:15). We also take great joy in knowing that one day we can be reunited with him again. If Jesus returns before we die, Harold will be with Him when He does return. If we pass before that day, we know he will be waiting for us on the other side. Either way, what a glorious day it will be.

Dooley noted...

"We are to be the stewards of God here on earth. If we do not improve our opportunities by the proper use of the things of this life, then we will not be privileged to enjoy 'the true riches' in the life to come." – Tim
