What Would You Give? Tim Dooley

It is an unequivocal truth that all men will stand before God in judgment (Romans 14:10; 2 Corinthians 5:10). But the condition in which we find ourselves standing before God will dictate whether we are granted entrance into the heavenly home prepared for us (John 14:1-3) or are cast into an eternal punishment in hell, a place “prepared for the devil and his angels” (Matthew 25:41).

Jesus makes it clear that to enter into eternal life one must forsake all and follow him (Mark 8:34). He goes on to ask, “For what will it profit a man if he gains the whole world, and loses his own soul? Or what will a man give in exchange for his soul?” (Mark 8:36-37). Even if you could amass all the riches of the entire world, you would not be able to exchange them for eternal life on the Judgment Day. In fact, if you had amassed all the world’s wealth you would not have it available to exchange because it would all have been burned up (2 Peter 3:10). The age-old adage is certainly true, “You can’t take it with you!” (See Job 1:21).

Unless one is found covered in the blood of Jesus when he stands before God in judgment, he will not inherit eternal life. But if we will leave the things of this world, Jesus promises us a hundred-fold more in this life and “in the world to come eternal life” (Mark 10:30).

Are you ready? Obey Him and be faithful.

FILL THIS HOUSE

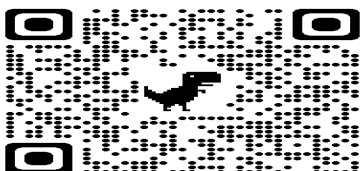

“I will shake all nations, and they will come with the wealth of all nations, and I will fill this house with glory,” says the LORD of hosts” (Haggai 2:7).

Dooley Noted...

My uncle Steve and Aunt Linda absolutely loved being with us last Sunday and couldn’t stop talking about what a wonderful group of Christians y’all are and how grateful they were for the welcome and kindness. They also are so glad that Colleen and I found y’all. Looking forward to a great time of fun and fellowship tonight. – Tim
