Church Calendar

THE MAYONNAISE JAR AND TWO CUPS OF COFFEE

A minister stood before his class with some items under the table in front of him. When the class began, he wordlessly picked up a very large, empty mayonnaise jar and proceeded to fill it with golf balls. He then asked the class if the jar was full. They agreed that it was.

The minister then picked up a box of small pebbles and poured them into the jar. The pebbles rolled into the open areas between the golf balls. He then asked the class again in the jar was full. They agreed that it was.

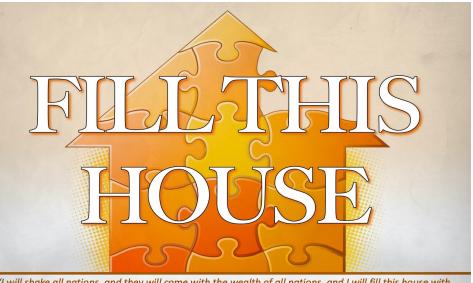

The minister then picked up a box of sand and poured it into the jar. Of course, the sand filled up everything else. He asked once more if the jar was full. The class responded with an unanimous "yes".

The minister then produced two cups of coffee from under the table and poured the entire contents into the jar effectively filling the empty space between the sand. The class laughed. "Now", said the minister as the laughter subsided, "I want to recognize that this jar represents that this jar represents your life. The golf balls are the important big things—God, the Church, your family, your health, and your friends—and if everything else was lost and only they remained your life would still be full."

"The pebbles are the other things that matter like you job, your house and your car. The sand is everything else—the small stuff. If you put the sand into the far first," he continued, "there is no room for the pebbles or the golf balls. The same goes for life. If you spend all your time and energy on the small stuff, you will never have time for the things that are important."

The minister reminded them to take care of the golf balls first—the things that really matter. Set your priorities. The rest is just sand.

One lady in the class raised her hand and inquired what the coffee represented. The minister smiled. "I'm so glad you asked. It just goes to show that no matter how full your life may seem, there's always room for sharing coffee with friend." ...copied

"'I will shake all nations, and they will come with the wealth of all nations, and I will fill this house with glory,' says the LORD of hosts" (Haggai 2:7).
