CHURCH CALENDAR

(OUR WEEKLY FOCUS)

LIKE A TREE

And he shall be like a tree planted by the rivers of water, that bringeth forth his fruit in his season; his leaf also shall not wither; and whatsoever he doeth shall prosper.” (Psalm 1:3)

In the above Scripture the upright man is likened to a tree, but in the next verse the evil person is compared to chaff. How impressive is the contrast. What an appropriate suggestion of a bad man (chaff)...No roots, no substance, no life, no value, no future! But the good man is likened to a tree. Why a tree?

☐ He is a fixed person. —Planted by the rivers, his roots are deep. One of his laudable traits is stability; steadfast and unmovable. Not wish-washy. Not blown about by the fickle winds of popularity and temporary gain. You can deal with him.

☐ He is a growing individual. “Planted by the rivers of water, he has nutriment. It is intended that the spiritual part of man should continue to grow. While the outward part of man reaches the climax in growth and begins to weaken, the inward part is to be renewed and get stronger day by day.

☐ He is a fruitful being. —Bringeth forth his fruit. Successful—Productive—Fruitful of golden deeds. —In his season. Winter is sure to find out what summer has laid up. For a person’s family and for the world to have fruit, one must produce.

☐ He is a beautiful, living creature. —His leaf also shall not wither. He retains his attractiveness, just like a tree holds its foliage. No ugly withering. Few objects in nature are as pleasing as a handsome tree. Its foliage beautifies the landscape. It crowns the hilltop. It touches up the mansion. But even more attractive is a righteous, fruit-bearing life. No mansion is pretty without it. How beautiful is a good life!
