HAPPY FATHER'S DAY

Father's Day Memories

To say, "All that I am, I owe to my mother," not only praises mother, but at the same time it condemns father. I cannot honestly make that statement, because my life has been greatly influenced by both my father and my mother.

Here in America, there are multitudes of homes without fathers. This is truly one of the most devastating plights of our modern experience. My dad had problems, a few of them were large, but I will go to my grave knowing that my dad loved me and wished better for me. He taught me about God every-where we went. When I was just a small boy he would tell me that God made all the trees, the birds, and the animals and he would explain that God took care of all of creation, because He was a good God.

Dad was a commercial fisherman and he would take me with him. When I was small, the Mississippi looked huge and dangerous. My dad told me that God made that big river and all that was in it. I have no way of knowing how many times I heard him praise God for this great thing or that little thing. It seems like I heard dad thank God countless times for one thing or another. Sometimes the old Evinrude would quit and he would have to take the top off to work on it. I can still see the sweat dripping off his Indian nose as he would pull and pull on the start rope as we drifted closer and closer to the dam. He would be asking for the Lord's help right along and when the old motor would stay running he would say, "Thank you, Lord!"

His influences still touch me day by day. I will also go to my grave knowing that he had a love and rever-ence for God that I personally have seen in only a few. I sure hope to see him on the other side. Dad was not the perfect father, but he did teach me many things to point me toward Him who is, for that I am eternally grateful. The absent of faithless father cannot positively influence his family toward precious salvation in our glorious Christ Jesus.

Love, honor, reverence, and care for your parents while you may, for they too will soon "fly away." The precious old Book still says, Honour thy father and mother; which is the first commandment with promise; That it may be well with thee, and thou mayest live long in the earth. And ye fathers, provoke not your children to wrath: but bring them up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord. Ephesians 6:2-4

THANK YOU

We received thank you notes from Madison Clint Stroupe and Jackson Coggin this past week thanking everyone for the love shown them as the graduate high school!

DIAPERS AND WIPES BABY SHOWER

We would like to say "thank you" to everyone who brought diapers and wipes the past few weeks. I am sure they will be put to good use!

VBS

Out VBS will soon be here (July 20-23). We need teachers and helpers. There is a sign up sheet in the foyer, please sign up soon so we can make plans to have a great VBS!!

Fabulous Friday

This past Friday the 6th grades and younger fed the First Responders breakfast.. The responders enjoyed the full course breakfast and explained to the children the responsibilities of a First Responder. They brought a fire truck and explained the purpose of the truck and how it operated. Fabulous Friday will be every Friday during the summer and all 6th grade and younger are encouraged to attend. A special thanks for all those planning and helping with this good work!
